THE DEPARTMENTS.

THE PRESIDENT has not signed the bill for the relief of Mrs. Lincoln as erroneously stated in the Star. He only resleved the bill yesterday. It will undoubtedly be ap-proved.

THE Navy Department is informed of the death by drowning, while skating at Eric, Pa., yesterday, of Master Thomas S. Plunkett, of the United States steamer shakers.

THERE were lots of callers at the White House to-day. Among those who saw the President were Senators Miller, of California, Harrison, Platt, Mahone, Logan, McMillan, Voorhees, Lapham, Van Wyek, Saunders and Ferry; Representatives Harris, Butterworth, Dwight, Hubbell, Whitthorne, Flower, Steele, Moore, Jacobs, Caudler, Pierce, Valentine, Dezendorf and Justice Harlan, besides a large number of handshakers.

The President yesterday appointed the following assay commissioners to test and examine the weight and fineness of the coins received at the soveral mints during the year of ISSI, viz.; Hon. William B. Allison, United States Senate; Hon. Wm. S. Rosecrans, House of Representatives; Prof. John Towler, Geneva, N. Y., Hobart College; Rev. Paul A. Chadhourne, Massachusetts; Prof. Chas. E. Later News From Danenhower.
Secretary Hunt to-day received the following cablegram from Minister Hoffman at St. Petersburg:

"Di menhower telegraphs, 'Report my arrival with nine seaman; sick better. De Long traced to a definite locality, for which Melville and the Russians are searching ardently. If the ship is not found before Spring may I charter a steamer and search the ceast and Islands between the rivers Olenek and Kolyma? If yes, send two active line officers to assist. Co-operation by authorities is hearty and intelligent."

The following reply was sent to Minister Hoffman, at St. Petersburg, this afternoon:
"Tell Damenhower two Officers will be sent. If his health admits he will remain and continue the search for the missing parties.

HUNT, Secretary."

Two Workmen's Fearful Fall. At about 11 o'clock this morning Wm. A. Thomas, a white man about 40 years of age, and a boy of 16, named George Trusaw, were at work painting the new residence of Commander Kellogg on N street northwest, near Twentieth, when the scaffolding west, near Twentieth, when the scaffolding upon which they were standing gave way, precipitating both men to the sidewalk below, a distance of over forty feet.

When Trusaw reached the ground his head struck with great force, inflicting a severe cut in the forehead, his arm was also broken above the elbow, and he was picked up in a souscless condition and carried to his home on Virginia avenue, near Second street southwest. Mr. Thomas' injuries, which will probably prove fatal, consisted of a compound fracture of the right leg and an injury of the spine. He was carried to the residence of Mr. Kinney, at Twentieth and N streets.

tion to Congress for the restoration of their pay, which was reduced by act of Congress. This case has been compared and deemed equally worthy of consideration as that of the Treasury watch, which was mentioned in one of our papers some time ago. It is to be hoped that Congress will not hesitate to render immediate aid to these worthy persons by nising their pay to its former rate, and also allowing them the difference of their past and present pay from the date on which it was reduced. This will relieve the pressing want this reduction has forced upon them.

SOCIETY.

What is Going On in the Social World. Miss Bi-selle, of New York, is visiting her friend, Miss Walte, and has received a warm welcome from her admirers among us.

The dancing reception given by Mra. Lewis Davis yesterday afternoon was a charming party. She was assisted in receiving by her sister-in-law, Mra. Gea. Fester and her nicee, Misé Mauro, a pretty and very attractive girl. The music was excellent, and the rooms were large enough to let the guests enjoy dancing to it. The table was artistically arranged, flowers, lights, and odd designs in confections disputing the claim to attention with the more substantial bound-turkey, salads, oysters and croquettes.

The afternoon was remarkable for the number of pretty girls present and the toilettes, which are quaint in extreme this season.

The second Kammer concert of the season will be given at Marini's to-night. The programme is delightful, including as it does Mezart's quintet in 6 minor—the four movements; Haydn's quartet (Opus 76, No. 3, in C), and Rheinberger's piano quartet (Opus 38, in E flat).

Of Mr. Shorman's exquisite touch, the force and fire of Mr. Gloctzner, who comes from the land of music; of Mr. Hoffman's delicate handling of the bow, and the harmony of Mr. Bermays and Zimelyni, it is needless to speak, for their keen appreciation and enjoyment of the old masters insures a faithful and beautiful interpretation of their music.

needless to speak, for their keen appreciation and enjoyment of the old masters insures a faithful and beautiful interpretation of their music.

Mr. Nordhoff, the son of Mr. Charles Nordhoff, is visiting his parents at their home in the North End. It was to him that the charming letters were addressed, which, collected and printed in book-form, have been of such assistance and have given such pleasure to the young men of the country during the past acveral years. Mr. Northoff has the wit and agreeable manner which we have learned to know so well in his father and mother.

The family of Senator Miller have been plunged in deep mourning by the shocking news wired them has hight of the death of their grandfather, Mr. Hiram Miller, who was run down by a train of cars in Utica and literally crushed to death.

The Cabinet receptions will be brilliant to-day, every one receiving with the exception of Mrs. Kirkwood, who is prevented from so doing by illness. This is a regret to her, for she is the soul of hospitality and enjoys nothing more than to be surrounded by merry young people and social life.

Mr. Bancroft will give an entertainment this evening to Secretary and Mrs. Frolinghuysen. About sixty guests are invited to meet them.

Among the pleasantest evenings during the season are the informal Tuesdays "at home" of Mrs. Francis Hodgson Barnett. The company gathered there always includes representatives from the literary world, and the conversation sparkles and stags like a verbai reflection of the open fire which keeps up a running feast-jois in the wide fire-place, with its picturesque furnishing of brass andirons, fender, bellows and tea-kettle.

The room is made pretty with all sorts of artistic odds and ends, pictures, casts, brielows and tea-kettle.

The room is made pretty with all sorts of artistic odds and ends, pictures, casts, briesa-brae, eld-fashioned musical instruments and soft, warm draperies. Pretty girls in rich evening dress assist the hostess, and the Doctor, with his fine head, beautiful eyes and graceful manner, is an ideal host. The house is a pleasant little nook of restrulness and enjoyment, into which the gayest members of society always manage to drop each evening for an ahour or two for "a little real pleasure," as they say.

There was a round of locial pastimes last night, and the crisp anow and silvery moonlight came in as notable auxiliaries to the many entertainments.

mooulight came in as notable auxiliaries to the many entertainments.

The Army and Navy German at Marini's was the most fashionable and brilliant given here this season. The guests were received by Mrs. Gen. Emory, and Lieut. Hein, of the army, led the german. Besides Gen. and Mrs. Emory, the guests included Gen. W. B. Hazen and wife, Mrs. and the Misses Kilbourn, the Misses Schenck, Lieut. and Mrs. Thackara, Gen. Robinson, Mrs. Justice and Miss Miller, Mrs. Howell, M. for Balley and wife, Lieut Babeock, Mr. fand Mrs. Howard White, Mr. Julian Von Viscoatte Keijlron, Mrs. Gen. Ricketts and others.

Abner's Hall was thronged last night.
The annual ball of the Washington Scheutzen Verein was conducted there and was a happy event. The music was charming, and hall decorations elaborate. The ball lasted until a late hour. The attendance was very large, and included Mr. and Mrs. Was. Helmus, Dr. and Mrs. J. Walter. Mr. and Mrs. George C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Abner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ebel, William Kooh, C. Altschub, E. Holer, E. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ross, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hebner, F. Bockar and lady, George S. Lasselber W. A. T. Schorger, Mr. and Mrs. A. Lassel musical selections were rendered by the Misses Bender and Boughton, Mrs. Pewell, Miss Catter and J. R. Gibson.

An interesting feature was the rendition in Chinese of the hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," by the two little children of Mrs. S. Moore Sites, who were dressed in Chinese costume.

Mrs. Clara L. Roach, the president of the union, and Mrs. La Fetra were in charge of the entertainment, and, as usual, were indefatigable in their efforts to their guests. There were a number of young ladies dressed in bowitching costumes, who served the refreshments, and their bright, pretty faces were not the least attractive feature of the evening. Among these were noticed: Mrs. H. B. Moulton, Mrs. H. A. Hall, Mrs. Lens Towner, Misses Laura and Fanny Towner, Dempster, Cora Dennison, Jessie Johns, Nellie Crosby, Libbia Moffett, Ellis, Benton, Mrs. Dr. Howland, Mrs. Elphonzo Youngs, Misses A. Birnoy, Misses Lizzie Kessler, Cora Markwood and Mrs. E. F. Sheldon.

The affair was a great success, and it is to be hoped that at an early day it will be repeated.

Post-office Appropriation Bill in the House-Funding Bill in the Sen-ate-News and Comments, Notes and Gossip.

and Gessip.

In the House there was very little morning hour business to day. The only new measure of importance was the introduction of a bill to reduce letter postage to two cents for the first half course of matter and to charge two cents more for every additional two enness. The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Post-office Appropriation bill. The committee recommended $43,529,390, being $132,590 less than the estimates, and $2,571,898 greater than the appropriations for the fiscal year of 1882. The bill is not likely to pass today.

The Alleged Straw Bond Cases.

Bliss, Cook & Co., who for the past four weeks have been busily engaged in an attempt to make out a case against a number of gentlemen of defrauding the Government, were as usual late in arriving at court to day. It was 12:20 before benovolented Barton called the court to order, when Col. Bliss stated that Second Assistant Postmaster General Elmer had been subcaned by the counsel for the defendants to moduce in court the proposals, with the accompanying bonds, submitted by the Postfield Department for carrying the mails of the United States under the advertisement of October 15, 1870, of the following named persons. Jesse R. Irwin, James E. Colgrove, Wm. L. Argue and W. A. Stoldard, Also the proposals &c., submitted October 15, 1850, by Cabell & Carpenter and others.

Mr. Eliza said, that Mr. Elmer, was in The Alleged Straw Bond Cases.

15, 1880, by Cabell & Carpenter and others.

Mr. Elisa said that Mr. Elmer was in court in obedience to the subpona, but it was a physical impossibility for him to produce the papers usked for within a week. He (Bliss) did not think the papers would be proper evidence in the case, and therefore Mr. Elmer should not be compelled to produce them incourt.

Mr. Totten said the object of the testimony was to show that the Post-office Department has sanctioned and oncouraged this manner of receiving bids in awarding contracts. Mr. Totten, continuing, said the Post-office Department seems to have been run on the principle of economy and reform, and, in his opinion, to be synonymous with rescality.

Mr. Elmer was then avenued to be synonymous with rescality. mons with rescality.

Mr. Elmer was then excused temporarily.

Mr. Elmer was then excused temporarily. Bliss made considerable ado over the fact that the counsel for the defendants summoned Mr. Elmer and requested the papers bearing on the subject of the letting of contracts, &c.

Mr. Totten said he did not care particularly as to whether Mr. Elmer appeared in court in person or that the papers were produced, but the defendants counsel would be satisfied for some clerk or clerks of the Post-office Department to go over the papers and furnish them the information desire!

Mr. Bliss said on inquiry he found its

Mr. Bilis said on inquiry he found it would take sixteen clerks from three to five days each to examine the papers asked for by the defendants counsel, and he did not think the Government officers absuld to think the government officers absuld not think the Government officers ahould be put to so much trouble.

Mr. Totten, sharply, said the gentlement of trial were men against whom there never had been an aspersion cast until these cases were brought against them, and as their reputations were at stake, he chought it has and proper that every opportunity should be given them to disprove the charges that had been made against them.

For his part, he would bring the entire Post-office into court, from the Posturaster-General down to the smallest salaried clerk.

After considerable discussion, it was agreed by the Court to allow commen for the defects to recissue the original subpress, returnable to morrow.

The court then adjourned until to-mor-
